COUNTY GAINS $400,000 ON REAL ESTATE

Revision. Board Discovers Errors in Tax Returns

MORE FINDINGS COMING

Mistakes Attributed to Large Industrial Heads

Discovery of approximately $400,000 of untaxed personal property and real estate, which has been added to the tax duplicate, is the outstanding accomplishment of the county board of revision which closed its first session Friday, Harry E. Botkins, county treasurer announced.

Most of the property was placed in the books thru investigation made during the week with heads of incorporated companies in the county.

Foreign corporations have been the most flagrant offenders, the board has discovered. Considerable amount of the findings was reported as they were discovered in returns filed by the concerns.

In many instances the returns were made by some firm member who did not know just what should be listed. When called before the board the errors were corrected.

ROBE TO CONTINUE

Sessions of the board, composed of Botkins, Auditor C. R. Phillips, and W. Thompson, county commissioner, will be continued next week.

Representatives of several of the largest corporations doing business in the county are to meet with the board and go over their tax returns during the coming week.

Botkins is confident that the corrections will result in thousands of dollars being added to the assessed value of the property in the county. In but few instances, and not without good reason being shown, has an assessment been reduced, according to Commissioner Thompson.

The board wound up the week with visits to Marion-tp and Delos, for purpose of questioning corporation heads there, and getting an idea as to the extent of their properties.

Findings made by the board will be to swell June tax collections, by about thousand dollars, Botkins declared and relieve financial necessities of the county and city.

HOOTS WOMAN, KILLS SELF

Dund Resident of New Jersey Tells of Tragedy

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. — (United Press) — The story of a woman's suicide, which caused her husband to order the man to leave and led to a double shooting was whispered today by Mrs. Florence Christensen, when she related the circumstances in a local hotel for the first time since the deed.

Fredrick Gould, boarded in the hotel, shot her in the head and committed suicide. Her condition critical.

Mrs. Christensen said Gould, after living with the family for five years, suddenly began, about a month ago, to act strangely and to become hostile to her. She said she repulsed him and that he came to the room where she was sitting and exclaimed: "You order me from the house, will you?"

Mrs. Christensen said she replied to her husband had requested her to leave.

"I'll get even. We'll all die together," exclaimed the madman. He reached a revolver to her and she said: "You order me from the house, will you?"

Mrs. Christensen said she replied to her husband had requested her to leave.

HOTEL WILL HAVE FOUR MILES OF CORRIDORS

CHICAGO — Four miles of corridors and three and a half acres of lawns are called for in the plans for the new Palmer hotel, which at a cost of $40,000,000, is to replace Chicago's historic hotel.

The proposed hotel will contain 1,000 rooms, 68 more than the largest hotel in the world. A great hall will extend over the roof of the hotel every morning, and it will be six years older when he is tried every room and a night bath in a different tub. The 68 years old when he last bath.

OHIO POWER SOON WILL START HOME

Building to Cost $70,000 Now In Hands of Architect and Construction Is Expected to Start May 1—Other Improvements Progress Rapidly

Construction of the new Ohio Power building on N. Elizabeth-st just north of the Business College-bldg will be started about May 1, H. C. Sterling, manager here, announced Friday.

Peter M. Huleken, architect, has been authorized to proceed with the detailed plans and has promised to have them ready within the next 10 days or two weeks, Sterling said.

The new building will be three stories and a basement and will cost approximately $70,000. It will be a three-story building and will take up the full width of the lot and 130 feet of its depth.

Completion of the building, Sterling pointed out, will permit the housing under one roof all the now scattered departments of the company which is supplying power to the Lima district.

First floor will be taken up with the counting room for the convenience of the public and, at the rear, a store and meter room. The basement will be occupied for the time being by the heat department.

Offices will be concentrated on the second floor. There will not only be offices for the Ohio Power Co. but also for the Northwestern Ohio Power and Light Co., a subsidiary which serves Dayton, Chicago and surrounding towns and villages.

On the third floor the accounting department will be centralized. Here all accounts for the local company as well as those for the communities served by the subsidiary company will be audited. No accounting will be done in the smaller towns.

Construction of the substations at various points about the city are going ahead at a rapid rate. The Robb-ay station is nearing completion and the Rockland station, where the high tension lines will touch Lima, has already assumed important proportions.

"People little realize the large amount of money the Ohio Power Co., a concern independent of all other local utilities, is spending in the district," Sterling said. "It is a tremendous undertaking but it will someday be reflected in the growth of the city."

EQUAL RIGHTS TO YANKS ASSURED

Provided in New Treaty Signed at Paris

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — The formal signing in Paris today of a treaty assuring Americans full equality of rights under the terms of the French mandate in Syria and Lebanon establishes at the same time an acknowledgment by France that the United States, although never at war with Turkey, contributed to the defeat of that nation along with other allies of Germany.

The new convention, similar to treaties with France and Belgium affecting mandated territories in Africa, and with Japan relating to mandated islands in the North Pacific, provides that the United States and its nationals shall enjoy the same "privileges assured to state members of the League of Nations." The French acknowledgment of American assistance in the defeat of Turkey, which formerly held Syria and Lebanon is contained in the preamble and is regarded as significant in view of discussions between the United States and Great Britain with respect to the mandate in Mesopotamia where the Mosul oil fields are situated. The British government had contended that its nationals should enjoy greater privileges in that territory under its mandate than are accorded nations which were not at war with Turkey.

POINCARÉ AGAIN ASSURED OF PARLIAMENT SUPPORT

PARIS — M. Poincaré once more is assured of the support of parliament. His cabinet, reorganized after the recent defeat over the pensions bill was given a majority of 257 last night by the chamber of deputies, which approved the Poincaré policies of "reparation, security and economy" by passing a vote of confidence 408 to 151.

The premier was obliged however to wield the big stick to bring the recalcitrant ones into line. Only a threat to present the resignations of the entire cabinet unless a vote were quickly taken put an end to the obstructive tactics of the opposition.

TO ENFORCE DEMAND FOR BANK BOOKS

Committee Will Inspect Records at Washington Court House

DRINKING PARTIES REVEALED

Whisky Cargoes Taken to Little Green House, Witness Says

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — The far sweeping eye of the Daugherty investigating committee today encompassed a vast array of scattered activities, including air service frauds, drug smuggling and federal paroles at the Atlanta penitentiary, transactions at a Daugherty bank in Ohio, and reported liquor drinking at the "little green house on K-st."

The reference to the K-st rendezvous here came near the end of a long committee session when Daniel Smith, formerly negro butler for Howard Mannington at the green house, testified that whisky and gin had been delivered there in 20 case lots, carried by express company wagons under the protection of a man with a badge and a gun, Harry M. Daugherty, Harry F. Sinclair, Will Orr and "Mr. Christian" were named by the witness as among Mannington's visitors.

J. E. Dyche, former warden of the Atlanta prison, told of extensive use of drugs among prisoners there and said he made repeated and ineffectual efforts to induce Daugherty and Herbert Volaw, federal superintendent of prisons, to help stop it. Instead, he said, Volaw's interference resulted in suspension of an investigation started by W. I. Burns. Burns himself then was summoned with the records in the case.

Dyche said he had heard "prison talk" of money payments for paroles but no first hand talk of corruption. He disclaimed any knowledge of photostatics produced by Senator Wheeler, prosecutor, purporting to show a contract by which Elias H. Mortimer was to receive $50,000 upon the parole of Charles Vincente of Baltimore, a liquor law violator who never was paroled.

The affairs of the Midland National Bank at Washington Court House, Ohio, of which Mal S. Daugherty, the former attorney general's brother is president, were discussed at an executive session and it was decided that the committee should go to Ohio to enforce its demand to inspect the books of the institution.

Behind closed doors the committee also looked over air service records submitted by Secretary Weeks.

Asked about the Atlanta drug investigation, Burns said his agents told him "that Mr. Volaw stopped it." The director also said he had told Assistant Attorney General Holland of the situation at Atlanta and thought also had told Daugherty about it.

Burns said he believed the investigation would have reached "the men higher up" if it had been allowed to go on. He said it was "unquestionably true" that an "influential ring" was bringing drugs into this country.

Having failed to induce Mal S. Daugherty, brother of the former attorney general to come here with records of his Washington Court House, Ohio, bank, the committee decided to make a trip to Ohio to enforce its demands that the bank's books be thrown open to it. The date for the trip is yet to be fixed.

SAFER IS OUSTED

Canton Official Is Suspended by Acting Mayor

CANTON — (United Press) — Safety Director E. E. Curtis of Canton was suspended by Acting Mayor Charles M. Ball today.

The director's brother, Mayor C. C. Curtis, was suspended for 30 days by Governor Donahay Wednesday.

The suspensions of the Curtis brothers are the outgrowth of charges of misconduct in office and failure to enforce the laws with regard to prohibition and gambling.

After suspension of Curtis, acting Mayor Ball reinstated Police Chief Lemuel, who was deposed March 8. Ball said he would not name an acting safety director until the governor had passed on the charges against Mayor Curtis.

CHOSEN AS NEW ATTORNEY GENERAL

HARLAN FISKE STONE

STONE APPROVED BY COMMITTEE

Newly Appointed Attorney General Attack by Johnson

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — The nomination of Harlan F. Stone of New York to be attorney general was approved today by the senate judiciary committee.

Senator Hiram W. Johnson said in a campaign speech here today that appointment of Harlan Fiske Stone of New York as United States attorney general constitutes a dedication of the present administration to reactionary principles.

Senator Johnson was reopening his drive for the state presidential preference in next Tuesday's primary.

"What ever doubt may have existed in the public mind as to where Mr. Coolidge stood in the national struggle between the forces of progress and reaction was dispelled by the appointment of the new attorney general," Senator Johnson said. "The new chief of the justice department, child of the prosperous east, may be relied upon to look with tender sympathy upon the problems of the east, but to whom are the delated farmers of the west to look for support of their cause?"

KILLING ADMITTED BY WOMAN

Chicago Resident Tells of Shooting Sweetheart

CHICAGO — (United Press) — Swaying back and forth in her grief, Mrs. Belah Annan, 22, pretty, with bobbed titan hair, today related the weird story of how she shot and killed her sweetheart and played record after record for two hours to hide her lamentations from her neighbors.

The victim was Harry Kolstedt, 25, her "sweetheart" of two months. It started off as a gin party shortly after noon yesterday, while her husband was at work in a garage, Mrs. Annan told police.

There was much drinking and dancing and then a quarrel started over another man. Kolstedt threatened to break with the woman and as she started to leave, she shot him.

Horrified, Mrs. Annan tried to revive Kolstedt. "I was distracted and started to cry," she said. "I was afraid the neighbors would hear me. So I put on a record and took Harry in my arms, and cried. I kept putting on records, and as each record played, I took him in my arms and tried to call him back to me."

Mrs. Annan called her husband confessed to the killing and then they summoned the police.

PROGRAM IS REVEALED IN LAND OPTION

City May Get Plants Now Located in Other Places

EARLY ACTION PROBABLE

Representatives Work on Plan of Centralization

Lima will play an important part in the development of the D. T. & L. railroad by Henry Ford and also in the branching out of the Ford Motor Co. if plans now being considered by Ford's agents are carried out.

This was learned from an authoritative source Friday. Improvements contemplated are as follows:

1. Straightening of the D. T. & L. railroad thru Lima.
2. Purchase of 400 acres of land, now held on option.
3. Establishment of extensive switchyards.
4. Probable location here of repair shops for the road.
5. Erection here of an assembling plant for Ford automobiles.
6. Immediate progress toward double tracking and electrification of the railroad.

Options have been obtained on 400 acres of land lying adjacent to the intersection of the D. T. & L. E. & W. and Western Ohio railroads, it has been learned.

This land, under present plans will be used for the establishment of large switching yards and for shops and assembling plants should it be desired to move them here.

For several months there have been constantly recurring rumors that the repair shops now located at other points on the line will be removed to Lima. As this city is about halfway between Ironton and Detroit this action has seemed probable.

There have also been reports that Ford contemplates the removal of the Columbus assembling plant to Lima because of the fact that it will then be in direct freight connection with the Detroit factories.

Announcement that the Ford interests are preparing to acquire this large tract of land gives credence to these reports, local business men believe, and show that something is in the wind.

MAIL CARS HAILED. Growing importance of the D. T. & L. railroad in the announcement made Friday that mail cars are now being hauled with the regular passenger trains. This was discontinued some years ago and has been resumed. It is believed, because of Henry Ford's desire to make his railroad the greatest factor possible in each community.

Curves are being eliminated wherever possible, a project of this nature now being carried out at Columbus Grove, and under the plan proposed for Lima a new line will be built some distance eastward from the present route and the old one used only for switching purposes, it is said.

Immediate progress toward double tracking and electrifying the line is expected to follow the acquisition of property here and the final elimination of dangerous curves. More modern types of transportation will follow the electrification of the road, it being understood that small unit cars with frequent service are under consideration.

Definite announcement regarding the purchase of land and the moves to be made in carrying out the program are expected very soon, it is stated, according to representatives of the Ford interests here.

GIRL IS KIDNAPED

Child Seized by Woman in Pennsylvania Town

VERONA, Pa. — (United Press) — Jane Humbert, 10, was kidnaped today by an unknown woman who carried her away in an automobile, school authorities reported to police.

The child is said to be the daughter of W. S. Humbert, of Cleveland, Ohio. Her mother, it was said, lives in Cincinnati.

U. G. Palmer, of the Verona school, said he saw the girl walking towards the school house this morning. A woman in a passing taxicab called to the girl, seized her and drew her into the machine before Palmer could interfere.

The girl had been living at the home of John M. Schwartz here. Palmer said the taxicab had been passing and repassing near the school building for an hour before Jane arrived.

First $500 Death Claim To Be Paid By The Lima News

Representatives of The Lima News were arranging Friday morning to deliver to the family of Mrs. Nettie B. Parks, wife of W. T. Parks, 111 W. Vine-st, a check for $500 as payment of insurance due as the result of the death of Mrs. Parks.

This is the first life insurance claim paid since this newspaper offered to its readers the $500 straight life insurance policies a few months ago.

Mrs. Parks passed away at her home Thursday night. She was 49 years of age and had carried the insurance only four months. The total cost of the insurance to the time of her death was approximately $1.70.

COOLIDGE SEEKS CONGRESS SPEED

Invites Senators to Conference at White House

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — The senate legislative program was the subject of another White House breakfast conference today attended by eight Republican senators.

The conference was the second of its kind within three days for the purpose of agreeing up a concrete program for the remainder of the senate session, and speeding up legislation to allow congress to adjourn by June 1. Senators attending said the situation was discussed only in a general way.

Those invited to take breakfast with the president included Chairman Smoot of the finance committee; Chairman Warren of the appropriations committee; Senator Capper of Kansas head of the farm bloc, and Senators McNary, Oregon; Weller, Maryland; Edge, New Jersey; Cuzens, Michigan and Howell, Nebraska.

One of the legislative proposals considered was a farm relief measure. The president expressed the hope that some sort of legislation of an agricultural nature would be enacted, and the discussion turned to the McNary-Haughen farm export corporation bill which the president thus far has declined to support but which is advocated by the department of agriculture and most of the members of the farm bloc.

AMERICAN LEGION PLANS ANNUAL DANCING PARTY

Date for the annual American Legion dancing party will be definitely decided at a meeting Friday night of William Paul Gallagher Post.

The affair, the committee announced, will be held in K. of C. hall as in previous years. Reports will be made Friday night on arrangements for music, decorations and additional entertainment.

EMERSON WILL IS GIVEN COURT

Oria Weaver Files Brief Giving Details of Document

NEW DIVORCE ACTION STARTS

Immoral Conduct is Alleged in Petition for Separation

Filing of a document, purporting to give a digest of the contents of the last will and testament of Mrs. Emma Emerson, of Spencerville, and institution of new divorce proceedings by Mrs. Anna Weaver, Spencerville, against Oria O. Weaver, Friday, are late developments in the battle between the husband and wife growing out of alleged destruction of Mrs. Emerson's will.

A document containing the provisions of the will, and journal entry setting up that the will had been burned were placed in record in probate court by Eugene T. Lippincott, counsel for Weaver.

Simultaneous with a divorce action filed by Mrs. Anna Weaver, who is charged with burning the will, was dismissed by Judge Fred C. Becker, and a new petition filed in common pleas court.

The new petition carried with it a restraining order enjoining the husband from selling or disposing of his property.

AGREEMENT DENIED

Weaver testified that there was no agreement to destroy the will. Judge Hamilton ordered a document filed showing the provisions of the will.

Exception was taken to the procedure by Elmer McClain, counsel for Mrs. Weaver. He attempted to compel the court to change his ruling. Sheriff Crosson was called to restore order, at request of the court.

The papers filed Friday set forth that Mrs. Emerson bequeathed her estate, valued at $6,000, to Hazel, 13 and Harold, 16, daughter and son of the litigants.

In her petition filed Friday Mrs. Weaver charges her mate with visiting the apartment of a woman in Lima and charging immoral conduct.

She asserts that Weaver has run her into debt to the amount of $3,500, and induced her to sign a note for $385, which he led her to believe was to be for $275.

Destruction of the will was agreed upon she asserts. Weaver compelled her to consent she says, under threat of broadcasting her alleged indiscretions.

Mrs. Weaver asserts that she is owner of 120 acres of land, and seeks to prevent Weaver selling the property.

A new hearing to determine if the document filed Friday contains the provisions of the will, is to be held before Judge Hamilton soon.

BUDGET SYSTEM PROPOSED FOR BOARD OF COMMERCE

Manager Don Jacobs presided at a meeting of the executive committee of the board of commerce at the Lima Club Thursday at noon. It was suggested at this meeting that the business of the board of commerce be put on the budget system, both with regard to income and disbursements, and a sample budget is to be presented by Jacobs at the next meeting.

The committee went on record as being against the Rogers Bill, which would render a merchant liable for having misbranded goods in his possession and a wire is being sent Friday to Washington to that effect. The meeting also voted as being opposed to the gift tax revenue bill.

Meeting of the credit men of the board was held Friday noon at the Lima Club and methods to facilitate putting Lima's business on a cash basis were again proposed and discussed.

SEED CERTIFICATION TO COST MORE; FEES JUMP

With fees all but doubled, the Ohio Seed Improvement association proposes during the coming year to develop new sales channels of Ohio-grown certified wheat, oats, soybean and corn seed.

The way for this step was cleared early this week when the executive committee of the association met in Columbus and decided in addition to the $6 field inspection fee paid by members last year to impose a $5 membership tax.

The cooperative seed growers will continue to draw upon the farm crops department of Ohio State University for judgment as to what seed should be certified. Last year, of 250 wheat fields inspected, only 150 passed.

A few Allen-co farmers grow certified soybeans, oats and wheat for seed purposes, says H. J. Ridge, county extension agent. A good many use certified seed.

RECEPTION PLANNED FOR NEW CITIZENS AT Y. M. C. A.

Becker, Friday. Decision in habeas corpus proceedings instituted in appeals court to effect Scott's release from jail has not been made. Court sessions have been held up during the week, due to illness of Judge Kent W. Hughes.

AERIAL HOBO IS GUEST HERE

Lieut. Benedict Visits Mother, Brothers and Sister

Lieut. Frank E. Benedict, known as the "aerial hobo," arrived in Lima Thursday afternoon by aeroplane. A government flyer brought him here from Dayton.

Benedict, whose mother, sister, and two brothers live in Lima, hopped off from Clover Field at Santa Monica, Cal., March 23 on a "bumming" trip across the United States and return. Two months time will be required, he estimates.

During the trip he is to get rides from one government field to another, each ride being less than 500 miles in length. As a business part of the journey he is inspecting fields and boosting the national highways system being laid out by the federal government in conjunction with their slogan, "Ship by Air and Promote the Airways System."

He will stay in Lima about a week visiting with his mother, Mrs. A. J. Benedict, 127 E. Eureka-st., brothers Charles, same address, and A. H. Benedict, 1506 W. Wayne-st., and his sister, Mrs. C. B. Plate, 1636 Lakewood-av. Then he will go on to Washington.

SLAIN IN FIGHT

Worker Dead, Another Wounded in Kentucky Labor War

PINEVILLE, Ky. — (Associated Press) — Labor trouble, brewing for weeks at the mines of the Liberty Coal and Coke Co. on Straight creek, had come to a head today.

George Lucas was dead and Edward Dishman wounded, victims of a fusillade of bullets directed from a mountainside late yesterday by hidden riflemen.

The men, both from Virginia, were among the company's non-union employees.

The shooting, the second time recently according to company officials that their men have been subjected to volley from the mountainside, was the culmination of a series of changes in the operations of the mine. County officials initiated an investigation.

Kimball has not been a member of the railroad longer than a month, and was a brakeman. He was working at the time of the accident, and it was feared that he would be necessary to support his left leg between the rails of the track.

SUITABLE SITE SOUGHT FOR PROPOSED INDUSTRY

DELPHOS — Whether or not the Ward Railway Equipment Co. will locate in Delphos or not is still in question and is being given considerable thought. Rumor that the building which the Delphos Ice Machine Co. is located was vacant is false as the plant is running and machines are still manufactured there.

It is altogether probable that Delphos will have a new concern in the Ward Railway Equipment Co. and if the latter purchase the site of the Delphos Ice Machine Co., this company will likely pick a new site for their plant, according to John Luma, one of the directors of the Delphos Ice Machine Co.

METERS ON TAXIS

Meters have been installed on all taxicabs in Lima and the new rates are to go into effect Saturday. This will mean a boost of approximately 30 per cent in fare rates, it was announced, with rates on long distance hauls increased 50 per cent.

CROP TESTS ARE NECESSARY

Profitable Production Depends on Continuous Research

So rapidly has new knowledge about farming been extended during recent years that there threatens a dearth of new findings for the agricultural college to extend and for colleges to apply.

Making this statement the basis of plea for more agricultural research, Dr. J. B. Park, head of the department of farm crops at Ohio State university, told the committee on Ohio's rural program meeting at Columbus this week, of questions farmers continually ask the college of agriculture which the college has as yet no certain means of answering.

He said that nobody knows for certain how to prophesy in advance what varieties of wheat, oats or corn will be best in a given county. Nor can anybody say with certainty under what conditions manure or clover will do better than red. Recommendation of the best legumes for different sections of Ohio must, Dr. Park added, be based more on guesswork than on experimental evidence, and the question of breeding disease-resistant wheat, oats and clover remains unanswered.

"Agricultural extension in Ohio," he concluded, "has in the past six years introduced three new wheat varieties and spread their use to cover a fourth of the state's wheat acreage. Now it was at the state experiment station, not at the college, that this achievement was first made possible, through the experimental discovery of these superior varieties, which, without additional fertilizing or care, have proved to yield anywhere from 2 to 10 bushels more to the acre."

In Allen county at least 6,000 acres of Trumbull wheat were seeded last fall. Two thousand acres were sown with Gladden wheat and a small amount was sown with Portage wheat. A thrashing gang near Rockport found Trumbull wheat to average 2 bushels more per acre in 1923 than other varieties.

TAX BILL NEARING COMPLETION

Senate Committee Plans to Finish Job Tomorrow

MAY REPORT ACT MONDAY

House Repeal of Levy on Candy is Approved

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — Adjournment of the senate over Saturday was postponed in a program outlined today by Chairman Smoot of the senate finance committee, looking to completion of work on the revenue bill by tomorrow night so a report on the measure may be made to the senate Monday or Tuesday.

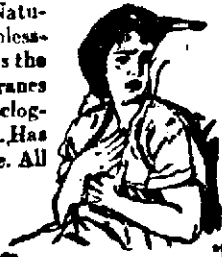

Starting on the excise rate schedule, the only remaining section of the bill to be taken up, the committee last night approved the reduction in automobile taxes and repeal of the tax on candy voted by the house. New taxes, however, were voted—ten per cent on radio sets selling for $15 or more and ten per cent on Mah Jong sets selling for $5 or more, both levied on the manufacturers.

The increase in the state taxes and the gift tax voted by the house were eliminated. Both were opposed by Secretary Mellon.

Our Clothes--As Others See Us

Just how do we look—as others see us? Each man can think of himself as being alone on a lofty pyramid. Far below stand a multitude of other men. They are the men he meets every day doing business, talking politics, hurrying through lunches, fighting, co-operating.

He is so far away from them that they cannot tell much about his real personality. But they can see him.

As others see him he consists of six inches of face and 5½ feet of hat, collar, tie, shirt, coat, trousers, shoes. They see his outsides. Much of his success, much of his failure, is the direct result of his outsides.

Consider the man who is responsible for your outsides—your haberdasher, your clothier—He is responsible for everything about you—except your face. That takes knowledge. Your clothier reads publications which you have never seen—keeping him in touch with the master tailors—the last word from London, Paris, New York. Your haberdasher is trained to know a good thing when he sees it—and to know when it is good. He is trained to know what looks well on you and what doesn't. He determines how we all look to each other.

SPRING—the "dress up" season of all the year demands a respectable appearance from you—Your clothes should be shapely—your furnishings in good taste—everything about you should take on an air of refinement—of prosperity. We're ready to serve you as never before. The last word in style, workmanship, and artistic color treatment awaits you here. Be ready for the first Spring days with something new, fresh—Your good appearance means much to you.

Punged From Across "The Pond"

The well-dressed man is an anglo-maniac this season in the matter of Suits. The English cut has invaded our shores and American men have given the style a "princely welcome." The best expressions, the most likable American interpretations and adaptations of this style are shown here in varied models—in all the new patterns and shades—at various likable prices.

LOCAL MAN AIDS FARM PROGRAM

Bureau Head Attends Conference at Columbus on Plan

Twenty-five farm men and women, chosen by the Ohio State college of agriculture as the most representative in the state, gathered in day and night sessions at Ohio State University this past week and went over with specialists of the agricultural college an outline by which it is proposed to guide Ohio's agricultural development during the next quarter century. Ed Stalter, president of the Allen-co Farm Bureau, was one of the twenty-five.

First steps toward such a state program were taken early this year when some 700 country people attended Farmers' Week at the university especially to hear presented by agriculturists the background facts of the state's farming past and present, and to advise college heads on the proper future trend.

Each department head of the college of agriculture drew up in outline a list of leading problems in his field, and then suggested definite steps toward solution. These outlines the committee of 25 criticized, amended and finally approved this week.

The group adjourned Tuesday night having approved in outline, it is said, most of the plans presented, and having made practical suggestions in the light of the needs of their home and communities. Incorporated into the final plan, these suggestions will be made public in a college bulletin now being prepared to carry the state program as a whole.

VISIT INFIRMARY

Commissioners Stumped on Plans for Sewerage Disposal

No decision was reached by county commissioners Thursday when they visited the county infirmity in Bath-tup for the purpose of surveying sewerage disposal facilities.

Present method of disposing of wastes from the institution has been scored by the state board of health as a menace to the raw water supply of the city of Lima.

County commissioners are of the opinion that should be done in view of the fact that tests made by chemists for the city show no impurities in the water of the drain.

The infirmity building located on Lafayette st. have been standing for a half century, and during the county court house. The building was erected in 1871 and is somewhat out of date. It is claimed in the matter of modern conveniences.

S.S.S. keeps away Pimples

You will be compelled to admit that the results of S.S.S. are really amazing!

Did you ever know how big pimples make the hydrant water fit for you to drink? That's what S.S.S. does to the blood in your own blood-pipes. I

Increase your Red-Blood-Cells. That's the sure way! S.S.S. builds Blood-Cells; this means strength! S.S.S. is acknowledged to be one of the most powerful, rapid and effective blood-cleansers known. You don't have to use some new fad treatment that is mere guesswork, you don't have to smear things on your face in a vain effort to get rid of eruptions. Eruptions come from blood impurities and a lack of rich blood cells. S.S.S. builds new blood-cells. This is why S.S.S. routes out of your system the impurities which cause boils, pimples, blackheads, acne, blotches, eczema, tetter, rash. That's why S.S.S. has done such wonderful work in freeing thousands from the scourge of rheumatism. S.S.S. is also a remarkable flesh-builder. That's why underweight people can quickly build up their lost flesh, get back their normal weight, pink, plump cheeks, bright eyes, and "pep." S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores. The large size is more economical.

IMMENSE CHANGE IN THIS LADY

Had Awful Case of the Stomach Trouble Before Taking Plant Juice

SUFFERING HAS LEFT HER

A wonderful change has come over me since I have taken your Plant Juice. I feel better and stronger in every way," said Mrs. M. J. Morgan, of 19 Main street, Sp. Ind. H. N. J. while talking to the staff of The Plant Juice Man

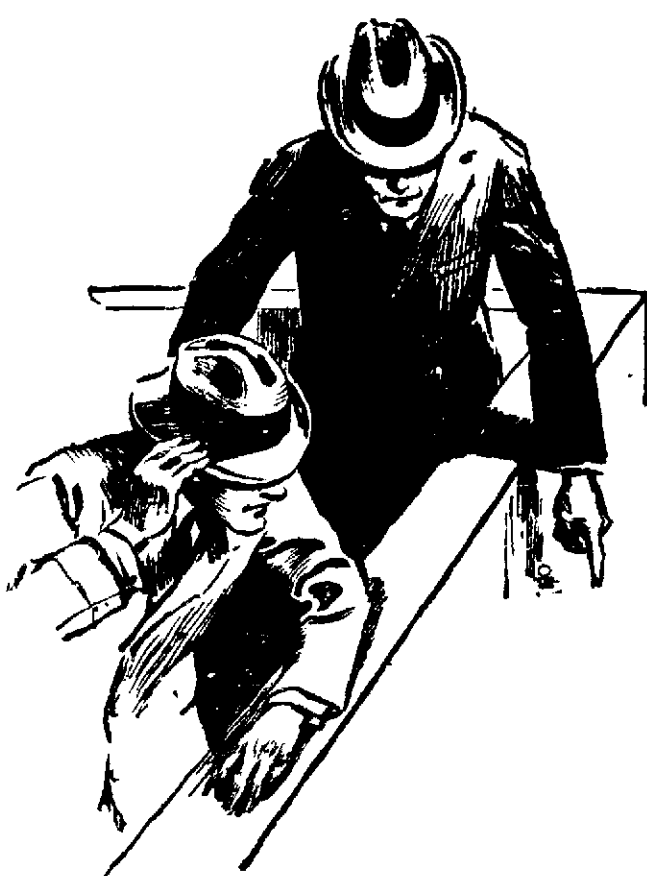

MRS. M. J. MORGAN.
I hardly know how to put in words all I have gained in a course of Plant Juice," she continued.
Once at Boston and again at Newark, N. J., I had a ray picture made and each time I was told my stomach was in very bad condition. This stomach trouble caused terrible pain and even if I got hungry, I did not dare to eat much because of the gas bloating pain and to serve the food would put me in. I was so awfully short of breath that I was afraid to lie down at night. And I was constipated. I was sluggish and caused all kinds of terrible headaches, and my knees were weak.
"I consider it marvelous what Plant Juice did for me. My stomach has improved so much that I can now eat a good meal and really enjoy it. The sore spots and pains have left my stomach and I do not have gas or bloating. The shyness of health is gone. I now feel regular and my liver and kidneys work as they should so that I do not have biliousness or headaches anymore. My kidneys are improved and I am gaining weight and strength. Even my complexion is so much better that my friends are talking about it. I surely advise every sufferer, who is troubled as I was, to give Plant Juice a trial."
Plant Juice is sold in Lima at Hunter's drug stores, 49 Public Square and Main and Wayne streets, and at the Argonne drug store, opp Post Office.

out of a horse trade said to rival any related in "David Harum." The jury found that an ancient equine sold by Fleming to Jones as sound and gentle for $14.40 was afflicted with what horsemen call "the heaves." Jones was awarded refund of half the purchase price.

Popularity of Smoke Menaces the Bootlegging Business

NEW ORLEANS — (Associated Press) — "Marihuana," or "Marijuana," as some spell it, the every day "loco weed" that formerly grew wild on the deserts of northern Mexico, now is being cultivated on thousands of acres in that country for sale to addicts of the plant in this country, according to Valdo Santos, arrested here with five pounds of it in his possession. Santos was charged with violating a city ordinance against the sale and possession of the product.

The weed, which Santos said he had sent from Mexico to agents in all parts of the United States for distribution, is smoked in the form of cigarettes and, according to Santos, "the business here bootlegging because the fines are smaller and I will get for thirty-five cents a cigarette."

Authorities say the stuff has almost every known effect upon persons who use it. In some it produces a feeling of exhilaration or euphoria, but instances have been known where crazed addicts have committed murder.

Doheny Taught Diamond Hitch By Oregon Jack

More Experiences of Early Days Told by Millionaire

INSTRUCTED AS TO PACKING

Become Stowaway in Military Expedition to Southwest

This is the fifth chapter of "How I Made My Millions," by E. L. Doheny, which tells of his early experiences in the oil business. In previous chapters, Doheny tells how he came west and how he won the oil rights to the Los Angeles basin.

On the Mexican frontier, Doheny, who had been in the oil business for some time, was instructed as to packing for a military expedition to the southwest. He was to become a stowaway on the expedition.

When I heard that another expedition was going into the Indian Territory, I decided to go along. I had a mount and a horse, and I had a good knowledge of the country.

We went to Wichita at the head of the expedition. There we met the military commander, who was a very kind man. He gave me a job as a packman.

WEST ON SURVEY

I went on a survey with the military commander. We went to the headwaters of the Colorado River. The country was very beautiful. We saw many interesting things.

murderers and others, were 20 or under. In another place we found the bodies of four freighters who had been killed. One of the men was Pat Hennessey, at the place of whose death now stands a town that bears his name.

For a time I acted as extra man to some of the surveyors, and I often had to go on foot to Fort Sill on their errands.

Varied experiences came rapidly. Some Indians taught me how to trap. Then with Keka Ahaka, one of their number, I went trapping for three years. I used to run horse races with the Indians. The hoof mark received in one of these contests is imprinted on the side of my head to go with me to my grave.

A visit to southern Texas, back to Wichita on a drive; a few more bits of adventure—And then my first real attempt to make money.

W. A. CRIM CALLS TANLAC THE WORKINGMAN'S FRIEND

Tells How Famous Tonic Restored His Strength and Overcame Troubles Enabling Him to Stick on His Job.

When W. A. Crim, 1144 Denison Ave., Canton, Ohio, recently spoke of Tanlac as "the workingman's friend," he but repeated the grateful tribute of thousands of workers to whom the famous treatment has brought robust health and consequent freedom from loss of time and money.

me back on the job in the pink of condition. "I had quite a bad time. I had to have three operations and only a little liquid food kept me alive. This trouble, along with nervousness, dizziness and sleeplessness, pulled my weight down twenty-two pounds in many days."

"Finally my doctor recommended Tanlac to build me up and I now have an appetite like a buck. I put on all my lost weight and am as well as ever I was. Tanlac certainly is the workingman's friend."

KEEPING IS EXPLAINED

Helpful Bulletins to be Available Bureau Officers Announce

The state college of agriculture will publish on May 1 its first helpful bulletins on beekeeping. The bulletins will be free to any Ohio beekeeper who applies for them either to his county agent or to the department of agricultural publication at Ohio State University. The local farm bureau office, H. J. Ridge, says, will have a supply of the bulletins for distribution.

In order to draw on the experience and researches of a state commonly conceded leadership in the extension of practical facts about bees, the college has secured from the Oregon Agricultural College of that institution. This bulletin is the work of Prof. H. A. Scullen, is said to be widely known.

Mrs. Florence Nalle, secretary of the Ohio Beekeepers' association, makes the Ohio rewrite. Such parts of the work as apply to Ohio conditions are being rewritten.

Hundreds Know the Secret PYORRHEA.

How to Get Rid of It

You can end this loathsome disease if you will only try. Lots of things may prevent pyorrhea—Jo-Vex will banish it forever in a few short weeks. If you want to make your soft, sore, bleeding gums firm, strong and healthy, and tighten up loose teeth, get a six-ounce bottle of Jo-Vex today at Hunter's and Enterprise Drug Store or any druggist anywhere. In one week you will be joyfully surprised—it hasn't failed yet—in your case it may be the exception to the rule—if it is, get your money back.

There have been hot stands; the other parts have been changed to fit Ohio's needs.

Opening with a discussion of honey plants, among which, it is said, maple and willow trees are important—the publication goes on to discuss getting a start with bees and then talks about such things as apian location, beekeeping tools, comb foundations, queen excluders, feeding and general management.

SCHOOL CENTRALIZATION IN AUGLAIZE THREATENED

WAPAKONETA—(Special)—Injunction proceedings initiated by the board of education of German-tp, Auglaize-co, against the county school board and the New Bremen school board threaten to tie up centralization of schools as desired by the two defendant boards.

The plaintiffs assert that their schools are in good financial condition and that affairs are satisfactory. They claim that they would be compelled to help pay off an extra bonded indebtedness incurred by New Bremen if the centralization plans are carried thru.

GOAT SLEUTH NEEDED

MUSKOGEE, Okla.—Muskogee's police force will be recruited from the farms if Chief Fisher carries out his threat made after several cops failed to solve a mystery in which a goat was a central figure. A policeman, hearing smothered screams in a barn, called for help. Nine cops came to the rescue, and then a billy goat marched out of the shadows. Fisher says "no goat would fool a county, boy."

EDUCATIONAL CONFERENCE OPENS AT COLUMBUS

COLUMBUS—Sectional meetings devoted to art, biological science, clinical psychology, commercial education, Latin, mathematics, non-biological science and many other subjects featured the session this morning of the fourth annual meeting of the Ohio State Educational Conference at Ohio State University.

Attendance registration of teachers and school executives is expected to reach its peak by tonight when it is expected over 3,000 names will be on the roll. At tonight's general meeting, General Edward Orton, Jr., will read an address which had been prepared by the late Dr. T. C. Mendenhall on "Initiation in Education." William McAndrew, superintendent of Chicago public schools, will speak on "Forgotten Fundamentals."

Papini's

LIFE OF CHRIST

NEXT SUNDAY IN THE
HERALD AND EXAMINER

What the Leading Clergymen of the Country Say:

Cardinal Dougherty Archbishop of Philadelphia

Inasmuch as Papini has been, during many years of his life, an unbeliever, perhaps even an atheist, and is known to be a writer not only of a superb literary style but also of rare strength of mind and depth of thought, it is a good thing that his interpretation of Christ's life and teachings be laid before the American public through a vehicle which will reach all parts of our country and readers of every class, race, and creed.

Rev. Thomas F. Holgate

Dean of the Northwestern University and President of the Chicago Church Federation

I am pleased to learn that The Herald and Examiner proposes to publish in its pages Papini's "Life of Christ." This work, coming as it does from the pen of a scholar who had strong atheistic tendencies and was converted to Christianity through a study of the life of Jesus, will prove of great help to many men who have had sincere questionings as well as to those whose faith is well established.

The Herald and Examiner is to be congratulated on its decision to present this work to its readers.

Rev. John Timothy Stone

Fourth Presbyterian Church

Every generation seems to have its helpful portrayals of the Life of Christ and in our own day Papini has given to us an interesting vision out of the spirit of his own life and times.

The world cannot know too much of the Son of God and the Son of Mary and His life, together with the other lives of Christ, is awakening a new sense of responsibility among the leaders.

You are to be commended for this earnest enterprise in your paper.

Bishop Thomas Nicholson

Chicago Area of the Methodist Episcopal Church

I am much pleased to learn that The Herald and Examiner is to publish in serial form, Papini's "Life of Christ." We appreciate the increased amount of space which The Herald and Examiner is giving to news of the religious world and to items such as this. Papini's "Christ" is a notable book and it will have a wide reading.

Bishop C. P. Anderson

Protestant Episcopal Church, Diocese of Chicago

I am glad that The Herald and Examiner intends to print Papini's "Life of Christ" in its daily issues. It will doubtless have a great interest to many of its readers on account of its fervor and literary excellence. Although it puts forth no claim to profound scholarship it has something better—the fervent discipleship of a new convert to the Master.

Rev. Johnston Myers

Pastor of the Immanuel Baptist Church

It dignifies the press of the nation when one of our greatest papers is willing to publish such a book as Papini's "Life of Christ." It is the most popular and readable life of our Lord which has ever been written except that in the Four Gospels.

Rt. Rev. Francis C. Kelley

President, Catholic Church Extension Society of U. S.

Giovanni Papini, author of the "Life of Christ," has written himself into universal fame. He was Italy's greatest literary artist before, but now he is one of the world's treasures. When an ex-atheist sees the Christ he is lost with the eyes of discovery. He sees in Him what has been hidden "even from the elect"—or perhaps better say—"unexpressed."

FRESH AIR, BEST TONIC, SUTTER

Healthier Advice All to Make Full Use of Spring Days

The time is here for everyone to take that spring tonic, says Dr. J. J. Sutter, county health commissioner.

"I do not mean by 'spring tonic' the sulphur and molasses kind that mother used to give us, or any patent medicine tonic. I mean the kind we get from Mother Nature," Dr. Sutter says.

"Get out in the open air. That is the way to enjoy abounding health. The best spring tonic is the daily use of the open air, and the sun. But don't forget to mix a little play with the work."

Indoor workers should have plenty of outdoor air, says Sutter. Some form of outdoor recreation, such as golf, tennis, baseball, fishing, gardening or walking, should be indulged in by everyone.

The garden hobby, says Dr. Sutter, is a priceless aid to health for it keeps one out of doors and provides just the right kind and the amount of exercise.

Henry Ward Beecher said: "There are many troubles which you cannot cure by the Bible or hymn book, but which you can cure by systematic exercise and fresh air," Sutter quoted.

KIDNEY TROUBLE?

The Kidneys are the Blood Filters—When they Weaken and Stop Up—the System Becomes Overloaded with Uric Acid.

Cincinnati, Ohio—"For about four years I suffered with my kidneys being out of order. I had severe pains thru my back just across the kidneys and I would become so dizzy at times I would have to lie down until it passed off. I also had inflammation of the bladder and suffered from a burning and smarting. The excretion had a thick sediment and a very offensive odor. I suffered constantly. I tried many kidney medicines without relief until I began taking Dr. Pierce's Anuric (Kidney and Backache) Tablets. They gave me the first relief in four years. Since taking them I have not experienced any more trouble. The backache left me and my kidneys are active and normal. I have no more bladder trouble. The urine has cleared up and I am feeling just fine. I can do my work with ease and comfort. In fact, I feel like a new man. I do not hesitate to recommend Dr. Pierce's Anuric (Kidney and Backache) Tablets to all who suffer with kidney ailments."

—Wm. Johns, 254 Broad St.

Don't wait for serious kidney ailment to get in. Help your weakened kidneys with Dr. Pierce's Anuric. At all drug stores or send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., for trial package.

CARTER & CARROLL

60,000,000 FANS DICTATE FILMS

Production Not Controlled by Group, Say DeMille

DECIDED BY PUBLIC OPINION

Simple Story to Front Now, Director Asserts

(By HAROLD L. SWISHER)
HOLLYWOOD, (United Press)—
Both the rich, magnificent spectacle and the simple story will be pushed up by the dictation of motion picture fans thruout the world during 1924.

This is the declaration here of Cecil B. DeMille, famous Paramount Pictures director, comment on the oft-repeated query, "What is to come next in motion pictures?"
"We are now at what might be called a dead-center in the progress of the film business," according to DeMille. "For several years the motion picture has been in the ascendant. Recently the simpler story has come out of retirement.
Twenty years ago this situation would have meant only one thing.
It would have meant the passing of one cycle in production and the development of another in absolute contrast."

"Today, because the production of motion pictures is not controlled by a group of men, but by a constant and freely expressed public opinion, coming from some 60,000, 000 spectators, it is possible for the motion picture, with its crowds and the simple drama of but few characters to exist successfully at one and the same time.

"I consider, therefore, that it is foolish to claim that the present appearance of a number of modern, unspectacular stories means the passing of the elaborate, eye-filling spectacle which has been so popular thru the past few years. The spectacle will continue to exist. The simple drama will also live and thrive."

DEVELOPED BY COMPETITION
"It is a very fortunate thing that this is so. Competition does more to develop art than any other single influence. We will have better spectacular pictures and better non-spectacular pictures when the two types oppose each other in competing houses. There will be more originality in photoplays because a hide-bound cycle of one brand of entertainment, excluding all other breeds imitation and is likely to kill new and fresh ideas."

"The point is plain that we have at last, reached the much-to-be-dreaded stage where the public as a whole speaks its desires and makes possible the diversity of entertainment which the motion picture industry needs in order to rise to the still greater artistic heights which await it. It was very fortunate for the business of making photoplays when the voice of the public began to bulk large enough so that the film producers felt safe in trusting the expenditure of millions to its decision, rather than in relying entirely upon the judgment of a comparatively few men who might or might not strike the correct keynote."

THE "NEW" WILD WEST
"The wild western drama has become modernized," declares William S. Hart, the two-gun man of motion pictures. "The old West of the free ranges, the wild horses and the gunman is gone; but the romance of the West is not gone."
"Back in the isolated regions
there is still a picturesque, colorful life where adventure always hovers over the mountain ridge. I believe that the western photoplays of the future will depict this new phase of the country."

"The public taste for historical westerns has subsided along with the general turn from costume pictures. Western photoplays can no longer be made with a bunch of ponies, a lot of hard-riding cowboys and a few desperadoes. The western picture of tomorrow is going to make as big a demand on author, director and actor as the most pretentious society drama."

WORKS BY MOONLIGHT
MONTEREY, Calif. — A camera which can photograph by moonlight and starlight has been perfected by James Worthington, fellow in the Royal Astronomical Society. The camera works eight times as fast as the ordinary camera and can take 4000 pictures a minute in daytime.

Savings Talk No. 83

Builders of Empires

The child has a glorious imagination. The magic spell of a few flimsy toys causes kings and courts and a hundred splendors to parade before his enchanted gaze.
You parents, couple onto that truthful imagination. The habit of thrift will become a joyous game in his young life.
It isn't how much the child saves. It's the gigantic benefit of the right start which it is now easy for you to implant in his active little brain. There is no safer way to make money earn more money than by placing some each pay-day to a savings account and allowing it to earn compound interest.

LIMA BEANE'S OPEN LETTERS

To Former Attorney General Daugherty
Dear Harry: I knew you would do it. Why didn't you take the tip and get out before Cal had to use the boot?

LIMA BEANE

To City Officials

Gentlemen: Bids were opened today on more than 20 street paving jobs to be completed this summer. There were a number of contractors who submitted tenders, so far as I know everyone enjoying the highest reputation for honest work.

I did notice that there were a number of home boys in the list. While I would not advocate and they would not want any advantage over the other fellow, I would like to see them grab off the bacon if their figures are right. I'm a great fellow for taking care of the home folks whenever the opportunity presents itself.

LIMA BEANE

To the Allen-co Child Welfare Association

Dear Friends: Your campaign for funds for playground operation begins tomorrow. I wish you success and am certain you will have little trouble in gathering together the required amount.

LIMA BEANE

To Dan Harpster

Dear Uncle Dan: Your appointment as a member of the Soldiers' Relief board of the county for another term surely pleases me greatly. You are not only a veteran of the war which threatened to tear our country asunder but you are a veteran in civic affairs in the county. I am sure that all citizens will join with me in congratulating you.

To Manager Clark, Fawot Theatre

Dear Sir: Allow me to thank you for providing for us a very enjoyable theatre season from the standpoint of big road attractions. I do not recall a season that was more to my liking. You mixed them up in an admirable manner and gave us shows that seldom reach a city so small as mine. I'm counting on a big season next winter. You have set a standard that will keep you on your toes to equal, but I believe it will be done.

LIMA BEANE

To Main-st Pavers

Dear Folks: This message is addressed to property owners, city officials and any lobbyists who may be boosting certain types of paving material. The main question before the city today is to get Main-st paved with a substantial type of paving and get it paved at once. Durability should be one of the most important factors but the material chosen should have an attractive appearance and be something of which every person can be proud. We have had enough of bumps and dirt. Let us do the job now and do it right.

To Voters

Ballot Markers: April 11 is the day to remember. Registration is necessary before you can go to the polls and there are each year many persons who lose their vote because they have failed to obtain transfers or, as in the case of new voters or those newly arrived in the state, have not had their name placed on the rolls. Every voter should be informed and send those delegates to the convention who will vote for the candidate they desire. Those who do not vote have no right to complain if the result does not suit them.

LIMA BEANE

To the Weather Man

Old Top: Now is the time for you to come to the aid of humanity and deal out some weather that will get us all in a good humor and rid of the colds that have been so common. What say?

LIMA BEANE

To Political Leaders

My Friends: While I'm not particularly anxious that too much attention be paid to politics in the selection, I would suggest that you look over the field of available Lima men who might serve to advantage on the Allen-co commission and then see that at least one good candidate from the city is nominated and then elected.

I do not believe that there will be any difficulty in electing the right man for residents of my city are interested in getting representation on this commission. They have been taxed long enough without having had a word to say in the expenditure.

LIMA BEANE

To Auto Drivers

I found it is surprising to me that more of your machines are not smashed up when you drive out of alleys onto main traffic streets. During the last week I have seen cases of the most flagrant carelessness in this respect. You can do a great service to humanity by stopping this practice.

LIMA BEANE

To Blind Workers

Fellow Citizens: Your case was pleaded most interestingly before a group of my people one day this week by Claron L. Shafer, a man who has developed himself in spite of his handicap. In this day of diversified industry, it is easier than ever before to find some vocation that can be carried on successfully by those who cannot see. It is my hope that Lima employers will study their business and aid in providing work for those afflicted.

To Josephine Pearce, Mary Austin, Glenna Marie Hobart

Singers All: Your work at Columbus in the music memory contest was a credit to our city and to yourselves. All did not win prizes but that is nothing to feel bad about for all could not win and the fact that you each were awarded pins for perfect scores shows that the competition was close. You showed the state that Lima has plenty of musical ability.

To Samuel Davis

Dear Sam: It was indeed a matter of gratification to have you with my shoe dealers for a day. Talks on efficiency and service do us all good, and I would have liked to have had all employers and employees hear your message. This is a live section of the state, as you perhaps already discovered, and I'm sure your message will do much good.

WITH APOLOGIES

BY OH. OH. JACKENRIM
A Page from the Diary of An Antiquated Reporter: Early awake, to find a great cold has come upon me in the night. Roused my wife, poor wretch, late out with Ethel Barrymore, and ordered her, breakfast to bring on a tray. Quickly came

ABE MARTIN

Referring again to the old time doctors and whippers, Doc Mopps tells us that one winter there was such a demand on him that he had to cut his beard off to get a little rest. What handy jarkin' places we see when we head a car.

grapefruit, prunes, two minute eggs with rasher of bacon, and cute red radishes.

Howbeit, she took then her hand. Bathing me in Vick's, with cotton flannel dressing. And pushing kindly nasal cream so I could scarce breathe, betimes. Looking door and taking key, she below-stairs, and never did come back till lunch time.

So, feeling fit, out and down the paves in the brave sunshine. At the post, saluted by the prettiest neckpiece I ever did see, sent on by Dee from Buddha's. Which must have put her back much subway fare. Albeit, from her own monies, and not mine. All the afternoon at my stint, with new budgets on every may. Until near crazed at how much trifles do cost.

In the afternoon, came my rich sister from St. Mary's. Wearing new gown and coat, looking very chic, yet she can well afford to wear even better. What with no children nor kin, closer than her brother.

Dined on a steak, with an gratin potatoes, and garden salad topped with green tomatoes. Tomats have not been coming thru so well of late, and must speak to the green goods dealer. There goes a Husband, who once was an amateur prize fighter. His wife licked him the first month, and he has remained licked ever since.

The death of the Rev. Perley Baker recalls him a quarter century ago, as a Dayton pastor, of none too flourishing congregation. In the late nineties, he became one of the greatest temperance workers the world ever knew. While no gifted preacher as I recall him, his genius as a collector from the Amen corner, exceeded that of Mark Hanna as a campaign fund builder. Dr. Baker was sincere, and his sincerity went home. From many a rural church he raised monies even a tax-collector could not have found. He became the working head of the greatest civic and the richest organization of its character in the world. His life, or the last thirty years of it, was devoted to prohibition. And he lived to see his dream come true. First in village, then by counties, or by states and before his death, by constitutional Amendment, nation-wide. And then it all he had the faith of his convictions.

Read awhile in a new tale, where a flapper was disinherited by her rich grandfather. Because she not caught. Suppose the old scoundrel would have left her everything, if the limelight hadn't hit her.

So, puzzled at such piffle, early to bed.

LIMA NEWS HEALTH SERVICE

—BY DR. WILLIAM BRADY—

BRACE YOURSELF AND GROW PLUMP

Perfect health is incompatible with bad posture.

Beauty is partly a question of good posture.

Carefulness, happiness or good nature goes with an erect, vigorous posture, and the opposite mental state or temperament goes with a slouchy, slumped or fatigued posture. Notice the posture of a series of persons you know and see whether this is not so. Try it yourself. Probably one reason why it "does you good to laugh" is that you have to brace yourself to laugh heartily. This is physiology, not psychology, and you must not confuse it with the backneyed platitudes about the smile that wins and the fool who grins.

When you are not only perfectly well but in top hole condition by reason of regular physical training you're in "chuckling good humor," and if I know what chuckling means no one has ever chuckled in a relaxed, weak or fatigued posture. You must brace yourself to do it.

If you are skinny you know or should know that your posture, if and when good, makes you appear more plump than you are, and if the posture is slouchy you appear even more gaunt and poor than you are.

One of the simplest ways of cultivating good posture is this: Imagine you have on a high straight collar and keep striving to thrust your chin down inside the collar a la Andrew Jackson.

Another way is to strive constantly to touch an imaginary ceiling with the crown (not the top) of your head.

A third way if you're a man is to strive to keep the back of your neck touching the back collar button.

These are merely hints about what to do with the muscles you've formed the habit of not using enough.

When there is a tendency toward "round shoulders," as in so many cases of fatigue posture and under-nutrition in young persons, it is a good plan to try to sleep prone, with a pillow under the abdomen, or at least to take an after-dinner nap or rest in this posture. And to get the feel of good posture, the knack of it, the young person with round shoulders and flat, sunken or weak chest, should practice the following maneuver, standing or sitting, every hour by the clock: Clasp hands at back as for a stirrup for a rider to mount; without unclasping the fingers, turn the thumbs down under the back. This forcibly pulls the shoulders into correct or over-corrected position. Hold the posture a minute.

Never mind your breathing. Don't be deluded by so-called breathing exercises, which are comparable with hoisting oneself with one's bootstraps. Deep breathing exercises are the invention of some one who skipped physiology when he went to school.

With a great many of these Skinny Winnies an undeveloped or rather an atrophic state of the supporting muscles is a factor of poor posture and poor nutrition and certain corrective exercise, if faithfully followed for a reasonable length of time, will help the scrawny one to acquire a little sorely needed padding. Ordinarily, people think exercise is useful only for reduction, but it is worth knowing that several thousand underweight young men gained an average of 12 pounds in the first few months of military camp life. So next time we'll describe some exercise to fatter Skinny Winnie up.

JUST FOLKS

—BY EDGAR A. GUEST—

AT THE JOURNEY'S END

"Well, I shall say at the last turn of the road,

Now is the journey ended. Never again

Shall I look for a child's face at the pane,

Or utter a sigh at the weight of my weary load,

Or turn with a smile to the door of a friend's abode,

Suffer a hurt or the bite of the stinging rain.

I have lost all I must lose, and gained all I shall gain.

Done is the laughter and silenced the crack of the good.

"Off have I whimpered at pain and shed tears

Borne of my grief which was misunderstood;

I have rebelled at the blows and the weight of the years,

But now it is over, I say I'd go back if I could,

Back to the love I have known, to the faces which smile,

Back to the cares I have borne, for the trip was worth while."

Fellowship Prayer

(Copyright, 1924)

Read Mt. 12:31-37. Text: "The best thing about a man's work well done is that it reflects itself in the personality of the man who does it, and he goes forward fit for a more important task than he would be fit for if he had done a slovenly piece of work." "If he does his work well, he lives under the great law of a larger opportunity."

MEDITATION: Some try to camouflage the poverty of the spiritual life and lack of the principle by smooth talk and national generous deeds. They succeed for a time in deceiving others, but in the long run the efforts result in failure. The pretender will forget his position, his own inner life will stand revealed in all its poverty and sincerity. But greatness of heart and honesty of purpose are always revealing.

PERSONAL QUESTION: What growth do I detect in my personality as fruit of the spirit of Christ?

Prayer: Our Heavenly Father, we pray that our souls may be as well watered gardens. Give us a hearty will to bring forth fruit pleasing to thee. May we not be contented with the good but seek the best, thru the indwelling of thy spirit. Amen.

BANDITRY REIGNS IN CHINA

Innocent People Killed; Graft Flourishes in Army

SHANGHAI—(Associated Press)—Life of foreigners in the far off Chinese province of Sze-Chuan is equally far from being secure. Respect for the law or anything else is not known there, and the last few years have been given over to a continual warfare between the Federal and Confederate armies, which includes not only pitched battles, killing of innocent people, captures and abductions, but also a long record of bribery and corruption among the army and officials on both sides.

A British official who has recently come to Shanghai from this province says that never before has Sze-Chuan been in such a lawless state. The roads, he says, are in the hands of brigands, who are organized into regular stations, with definite charges on each person which they levy on all those who wish to pass unmolested.

"The robber gangs fight continually with the provincial troops and military escort has been denied for foreign travelers," this official says, "the excuse being put forward that no escort could possibly be large enough to be effective."

MISS ALIAS

BY DOUGLAS GRANT

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Sallie Peck, employee of the Fair Deal Five & Ten, quarrels with her policeman sweetheart, Michael Curtis. That night Sallie goes into the yard to take down a washing line. She is struck by a car. A crash shakes the earth and Sallie is blown into the air.

When she regains consciousness, the girl finds herself in strange surroundings. A French maid calls her Alva Copeland and Madame Copeland, a tall, richly gowned woman, claims her as her stepdaughter. Sallie meets Cousin Wheeler, who makes love to her. She resolves to solve the mystery of why she is being substituted for Alva Copeland. Sallie tells the Copelands she is wise to their game and that, if they pay her enough, she will play a hand for them. The Copelands accept Sallie's offer.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

"You see, one slip and I might queer the game for you, and I told you if I went into this with you I'd play white. Couldn't you fix it some way that I'd been hurt in that train wreck and needed quiet, except just for—the folks who've got to believe I'm your stepdaughter and Cousin Wheeler's girl?"

"Cousin Wheeler" stroked his mustache somewhat nervously.

"It appears that our young friend has a remarkably clear grasp of the situation," he remarked. "Just how much have you told her this morning, Aunt Flo?"

"It wasn't this morning," Sallie explained. "Before that I thought everybody was cuckoo, calling me 'Alva,' but then I saw that you both were still going along and kidding to see how I'd act and if maybe I'd do to pass as the real Alva. That's why I came clean with Mrs. Copeland this morning and asked her what there was in it for me."

Mrs. Copeland gasped and this time there was a note of command in her nephew's voice.

"Aunt Flo, since it appears to be merely a question of price now, or I might more gracefully say 'reward,' I am sure this young lady will excuse us to discuss the matter in private for a few minutes before lunch."

"Anything you say," Sallie rose with a hard little laugh. "I ain't any too crazy to go back to—Shafftown, I don't mind telling you, and I'd like to take a hand in this with you, on the level, but considering the risk I'd be taking myself I ought to be fixed for life so's I could steer clear of—of everything and live quiet abroad some place where—where nobody'd know me. Twenty-five grand wouldn't last forever, but it's up to you. I'll be in my room, Mrs. Copeland, when you want me."

She nodded to her stupefied hostess, grinned derisively at Sloat as he held the door open for her and when she heard it close with unnecessary violence behind her the grin broadened. It faded, however, when at the head of the stairs she found herself confronted by Fitch.

"You got the bit of newspaper I slipped under your door last night?" he demanded in a whisper.

Sallie nodded.

"So it was you?"

"I was planted here on another lay; bit of luck, I call it, that they should have brought you here. Reckonize you at once, I did!" He placed his finger alongside his nose with a knowing leer. "I saw the chief last night and told him as how it come about you was dug out of the wreck. Dunno what their game is—"

"And I don't know what yours is nor who you are!" Sallie interrupted in a fierce undertone. "Who do you think I am, anyway?"

"Aw, stow that, Bess—Diamond Bess! I'm a new one with your gang since you pulled the Delapierre trick but the chief knows what Fred the Ferret can do or he wouldn't have planted me here. I say!" He came close to her, with a cautious glance at the closed sitting room door. "What did you do with them—the Delapierre sparklers? The chief wants to know and he wants to know at once."

Sallie felt her knees giving way beneath her.

"I don't know who 'Diamond Bess' is, nor what you're talking about—" she began, but he laid slim, wiry fingers like bands of steel upon her arm.

"Double-crossing, are you?" His whisper had become a hiss. "You know what happened to Gaffney when he tried it, and Chicago Molly, too! You had four of the biggest sparklers still with you when you left Philadelphia and you must have planted 'em safe or you'd have made a holler before you let these toffs adopt you out of the wreck. The chief wants—to—know! Twig that?"

Sallie's brain had been working quickly and now she shook off his hand with a fine assumption of scorn.

"Make a holler, would I, with every dick in the East—?" she broke off in seeming vexation. "How do I know you ain't a dick yourself? You bring me something that'll show you come from—from any friends of mine and maybe I'll have a message for you. Save? Now beat it!"

She turned abruptly and entered her room, closing the door softly behind her.

A nice mess she had got into! She might have known what that scrap of newspaper meant! It had seemed a splendid scheme to fall in with the plans of this crowd of swell crooks as Sallie Peck and then gradually get them to believe that she was in reality this 'Diamond Bess' with pals on the outside to see that no harm came to her so that they would be glad to let her go scot free as the price of her silence, and now she had placed herself at the mercy of a gang of criminals who would stop at nothing to regain the stolen diamonds which she had never even seen!

CHAPTER VIII

The Chief's Message

Sallie's disturbed reflections were interrupted by a light tapping on the door and without waiting for her reply Mrs. Copeland entered.

"I came myself to tell you that luncheon is served and that we have another guest, Mr. Bellows, who will want to talk over this little proposition of ours with you later. You may be quite your natural self with him for he has our utmost confidence."

So the attorney had been called in when she raised the ante! He might have prominent families for clients and a big reputation to lose, as he had reminded the others at that conference the night before, but there was something shady about him or he would never have lent himself to this scheme.

"I s'pose, Mrs. Copeland, that if I pull off this little trick for you, you'll wise me up as to who else I'm likely to meet will know the truth about me and who won't?" she asked. "There's always the chance that somebody might get suspicious some way and try to pump me, and if I fell for it—?"

"That is understood, of course," Mrs. Copeland responded as she led the way downstairs. "None of the servants except Therese are in my confidence and your nurse leaves this afternoon."

In the lower hall they found Sloat awaiting them in company with the tall, gaunt man with the sharp features whom she had seen alight from the roadster on the previous evening and later seated with the others about the council table. Now as he was presented he shook hands gravely with a keen glance into her eyes.

"I am delighted, Miss Copeland, that you have so fortunately recovered from your painful accident," he murmured for the obvious benefit of Fitch, who hovered over the table. "You have grown to be quite a young lady since I saw you last."

Sallie smiled sweetly.

"I expect I have changed some, Mr. Bellows. I am sure I never should have recognized you."

Sloat laughed but checked himself at a warning glance from his aunt, who maintained a running fire of small talk while the meal progressed.

When all four of them were settled in the sitting room upstairs the attorney opened the attack from an unexpected quarter.

"I understand, my child, that you are willing to place yourself unreservedly in Mrs. Copeland's hands provided the terms can be arranged to suit everyone concerned. It has not occurred to you, perhaps, that you are already in our hands?"

Sallie's heart sank. Things were coming a trifle faster than she had intended but she must bluff it thru.

"Perhaps it hasn't occurred to you, Mr. Bellows, that I got that about as soon as I came to my senses? Do I look like a poor fish that's likely to have a game of this kind put over on 'em without calling the turn on it? I could've walked out of this house any time after—well, during last night or today if I'd felt like it but I thought I'd wait and see what there might be in it for me if I stayed."

Mrs. Copeland grasped the arms of her chair and Sloat muttered an ejaculation but Bellows leaned forward, his brows drawn together.

"That is interesting. Do you care to explain further?"

"No, I don't. Mrs. Copeland got me right this morning—and I got her. I'm taking the big risk, for I ain't the squealing kind and I'll go up for my stretch while all the rest of you crawl out of it." Sallie drew a deep breath. "I think I can put it over—being this Miss 'Alva' I mean—with Mrs. Copeland's help and advice, but it might come to a show-down, you see, Mr. Bellows, and because of that chance it ought to be worth enough to fix me for life in a quiet way somewhere in Europe or—South America, maybe."

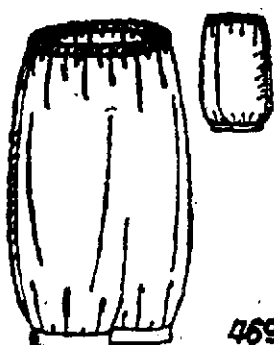

"We can understand, of course, that you are tired of work," Bellows' voice was smooth. "I am quite sure that we can trust you and I am convinced that with the aid of Mrs. Copeland, as you say, you will be able to impersonate Miss Copeland. It would be quite unnecessary, however, for you to live in seclusion after your agreement with us has been fulfilled. All the cities of Europe will be open to you."

He was interrupted by a meaning laugh from Sallie.

"Not to me, they ain't—I mean, not on twenty-five thousand!" she corrected herself in seeming confusion. "Double it and I'll play your game for you; then you'll never see or hear of me again. That's a go."

An Intimate Story of Innermost Emotions Revealed in Private Letters

TELEPHONE FROM JOHN ALDEN PRESCOTT TO LESLIE PRESCOTT

Is that you Leslie?

Yes, dear, what do you want?

I have just had a wire that Sydney Carlton has been hurt in an automobile accident, and am leaving in ten minutes.

How dreadful! Do you know how badly he is hurt?

No. Although he is still unconscious, they tell me.

How long will it take you to get there?

About two hours.

Telephone me tonight. I shall be worried until I hear from you.

I'll do it. Take care of yourself and remember I love you. Goodbye, Leslie.

Telephone From Sally Atherton to Leslie Prescott.

Is that you, Leslie?

Yes, dear. It is Sally Atherton, isn't it?

Yes. I just arrived back at the office to find that Mr. Prescott has been called away. Do you know how long he is to remain?

I haven't the slightest idea. His friend, Mr. Carlton has been hurt and they sent for John.

Well, I called you up to let you know that I, too, am called away. Along with Mr. Prescott's note to me, I found a telegram from Jimmie Condon telling me that my husband is very ill. I am leaving tonight for home.

Oh, I am so sorry, Sally. Is there anything I can do to help you? Can I come down and take you to the train?

No, that is not necessary. I am leaving a note for Mr. Prescott, if he should return before I do, and you can explain the rest.

Goodbye, dear, I hope you will find your husband better.

Cablegram From Mrs. Joseph Graves Hamilton to Leslie Prescott.

Leaving on Muratania tomorrow.

Hope you can meet us in New York MOTHER.

Telephone From Ruth Ellington to Leslie Prescott.

Hello, Leslie. Is John out of town?

Yes, dear.

Why didn't you tell me? Do you want me to come over and stay with you?

I was just going to telephone you. Jack only went about an hour ago. How did you know he was gone?

I telephoned the office as I wanted him to recommend to me an attorney.

What is the trouble, Ruth?

I have decided to get my divorce. Come on over and stay all night and we'll talk it all over.

All right. Goodbye.

FINANCIERS PLAN CREDIT BANK

American Bankers Prepare for Scheme to Aid Germany

NEW YORK — (Associated Press) — American bankers, anticipating recommendations of the Dawes commission for financial assistance to Germany, are making active preparations to raise capital for a German international credit bank. While official action has been withheld pending publication of the report, steps already have been taken to assure American leadership in financing such an institution whose needs would absorb a large share of the proposed international loan.

Subscriptions to the bank's capital will be made by virtually all of this country's leading financial institutions, it appears. Prominent international bankers have indicated their willingness to assist in raising America's quota, although the manner and extent of their participation will be determined by the nature of the Dawes report.

In addition to supplying funds for the establishment of the German bank, American financial interests, it is believed, will open the way for participation by France, Belgium and other foreign nations, whose assistance in financing the rehabilitation of Germany is one of the essential conditions on which the Dawes report has been framed.

By assuming leadership in the actual restoration of Germany, the United States, they predicted, would further enhance its financial prestige, giving it a position of importance even exceeding that of the actual days of the war.

BUSHEL "SPUDS" STOLEN
A. L. Simmons, grocer at 1200 S. Main-st., left a loaded truck Thursday at Fourth-st and Central-av. During his absence a bushel of potatoes were stolen. Police were given a description of a man seen near the truck and they expect to make an arrest in the case.

LOCAL POLICE HUNT FOR MOTORCYCLE, HORSE THIEF

Theft of a Harley-Davidson motorcycle from the 1400 block on Market-st was reported to police Thursday night by C. H. Jackson, Ash-ton-av.

Police were also asked to locate a horse thief wanted in Fostoria and Vanhusville. Report is that the man borrowed a buggy and harness in Vanhusville on the plea that his brother died in Lima and he wanted to drive to the funeral. The next day it was announced that he had stolen the horse at Fostoria.

PARKED AUTO WRECKED; DRIVER ESCAPES INJURY

Automobile owned by Dale Harrison, 913 W. Kibby-st., was demolished when struck by an automobile while parked Thursday night on the Dixie highway. Harrison, who claimed that his car was at the side of the road, reported to Sheriff Crosson that the license for the second car was issued to Mrs. Della Watson, Oxford-av. Occupants of both cars escaped injury.

FRIEND TAKES MACHINE FOR MIDNIGHT JOY RIDE

Norman O'Brien, of the N. and N. Tire shop, 8. Elizabeth-st., Thursday night asked police to locate his Hudson touring car stolen from in front of the K. of C. building, W. North-st.

Police Sergeant Edwards found the machine at 3 a. m. Friday and held the driver who proved to be a friend of O'Brien, who refused to prosecute. The machine was taken for a "joy ride."

ROXIE CAN'T LIE, SHE SAYS

Star Witness at Daugherty Probe
In Interview by Writer

TELLS OF LOVE FOR SMITH

Grew Fonder of Each Other After Legal Separation

(BY JULIAN M. STREET.)

WASHINGTON—(United Press)—Roxie Stinson, former wife of the late Jesse Smith and star witness in the senatorial investigation of Ex-Attorney General Daugherty, is a Quaker by birth.

She was born in South Dakota but the family moved to Memphis, Tenn., and again, when she was ten, to Washington Court House, Ohio. "My father's family were Quakers from another part of Ohio," Miss Stinson said to me when I interviewed her and she added, "I don't believe I have anything of the Quaker about me, except that I cannot lie."

"If I had committed murder and was asked whether I had done it, I would have to say 'Yes'."

After a musical education, Roxie married Jesse Smith who owned a small department store in Washington Court House, but a year later divorced him on a technical charge of gross neglect. The hearing was private and there was nothing about the divorce that reflected on the conduct or character of either.

FRIENDSHIP EXPLAINED.
Explaining her subsequent close friendship with her ex-husband, Miss Stinson said: "We still cared for each other and we realized that if we remained friends, we should probably be criticized, but decided that our friendship was worth enough to us to offset the criticisms of strangers. As for our friends, they understood and accepted us."

"Jesse and I were wonderfully congenial and grew steadily fonder of each other. At the time of his death, I was closer to him than ever before."

"He was a fine man and never did anything dishonorable."

"When he came back from the convention at Chicago, he told me and my companion how Harry Daugherty got the nomination for Harding, going at two in the morning to a room where a secret conference was being held and strong-arming it thru."

"The three people Jesse loved were Harry, Mal Daugherty and me. After they came to Washington, Jesse used to travel around with Harry and sleep in the same room with him."

BECAME NERVOUS.

In April, Jesse came home to Washington Court House and I saw he was in a highly nervous condition. Once apparently under great stress, he exclaimed: "They've passed it up to me."

"I knew what he meant. Some six months before there had been started quiet inquiries instigated by politics intended to involve the attorney general and Jesse in liquor frauds."

"Jesse was terribly concerned about it, but Harry, with his usual coolness in big emergencies, let it slide off his back. Subsequent pressure and realization of what Harry Daugherty's attitude towards him would be was the real cause of Jesse Smith's suicide."

"During the time Jesse was home, his attitude towards me changed greatly. Before that he would always greet me with a kiss when we met, but in those last two weeks he became very demonstrative, snatching up my hand and kissing it, or throwing his arms around me and clinging to me as if he was afraid of something. And he would say things, 'Roxie, you're just beautiful. You're the sweetest thing I ever saw.'"

"We were so near and dear to each other that I knew what was going on in his mind. He was in great trouble and it worried me so I couldn't sleep."

"The news of his death came to me on the street in Washington Court House. I saw a paper with the big headlines and read the word, 'Jesse Smith kills,' but I couldn't see the last word because the paper was folded. Just then Mal Daugherty came along and grabbed the paper away from me."

"I said, 'It's out.'"

The Erring Wife And Mother
is the woman who sacrifices her health and consequent happiness to her ambition. We all know such women—cautious that their homes shall be kept immaculately neat and attractive and their children well dressed they overdo and soon bring on some feminine ailment which is evidenced by nervousness, irritability, headaches, backache and other aches and pains attending such ills. Every woman should remember that the most successful remedy for such conditions is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which for fifty years has been restoring women to health, strength and happiness. adv

Piles

Can't Be Cured from the Outside

External treatments seldom cure Piles.

Nor do surgical operations.

The cause is inside—bad circulation.

The blood is stagnant, the veins flabby.

The bowel walls are weak, the parts almost dead.

To quickly and safely rid yourself of piles you must free the circulation—send a fresh current through stagnant pools. Internal treatment is the one safe method. Ointments and cutting won't do it.

J. S. Leonhardt, M. D., a specialist, set at work some years ago to find real internal remedy for piles. He succeeded. He named his prescription HEM-ROID, and tried it in 1000 cases before he was satisfied. Now HEM-ROID is sold by druggists everywhere under guarantee. It is a harmless tablet, easy to take, and can always be found at Hunter's Drug Stores, who will gladly refund the purchase price to any dissatisfied customer. adv

Don't Spoil Your Child's Hair By Washing It

When you wash children's hair be careful what you use. Many soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much free alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Multifid coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It is inexpensive and beats anything else all to pieces.

Two or three teaspoonfuls is all that is required. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to manage. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff. You can get Multifid coconut oil shampoo at any drug store, and a few ounces will last for months. adv

Diseases traced to constipation are many —get permanent relief with Kellogg's Bran

Why does constipation breed other diseases? Because it floods your system with dangerous poisons. And the longer you suffer, the more poisons accumulate. That is why constipation should be relieved at once.

Doctors recommend Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled. They know it brings results because it is ALL bran. And only ALL bran can be 100 per cent effective in relieving constipation.

ALL bran—Kellogg's—sweetens, cleans and purifies the intestine. It acts as nature acts. It makes the intestinal function naturally and regularly. If eaten regularly, it will bring permanent relief in the most chronic cases of constipation—is guaranteed to do so or your grocer returns your money.

Eat at least two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. You will like the wonderful Kellogg flavor—so crisp and nut-like—different from ordinary bran, which are most unpalatable.

Eat Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, with milk or cream. Sprinkle it over other cereals. Cook it with hot cereals. And by all means try it in the recipes given on every package.

Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, made in Battle Creek, is served in individual packages by the leading hotels and restaurants. Sold by all grocers.

RECORD CROWD AT EXPO-CIRCUS

Arrangements Completed for Big Saturday Matinee

More than five hundred people visited Memorial hall Thursday night for the fourth night of the firemen's indoor circus. All enjoyed the program of trained dogs, acrobats, trapeze and flying ring artists.

The acts are being staged on the state of the hall, while the downstairs part of the building is for industrial exhibits. The balcony is used for seating.

Children of the Children's Home and members of the G. A. R. will be guests of the firemen on Saturday afternoon at the special matinee performance. The kiddies from the home will be brought to Memorial hall in automobiles and given candy, pop, ice cream, and all that goes with a circus.

Matinee performances given Thursday will be continued Friday and Saturday, the final day of the circus.

Warm weather helped boost attendance at the circus on Thursday night and continued warm weather will bring out an even larger crowd Friday night, Chief Mack says.

MEDICS MEET
COLUMBUS GROVE — A change in the meeting of the Putnam-co Medical society to Columbus Grove, the first time the meeting has been held away from Ottawa in some months, brought out a large attendance of physicians at the meeting, Thursday. A dinner was enjoyed at 6:15 p. m. at the Grove House. The discussion was devoted to "Obstetrics" and the speakers were Dr. J. A. Harold, of Ottawa, Dr. H. A. Nieswander, of Pandora, and Dr. H. H. Sink, of Columbus Grove.

MILLER IS APPOINTED
OTTAWA — Charles J. Miller, Middepoint, has been appointed administrator of the estate of Nathan Shirley, of Monterey-twp., who died March 2. His only relative is a brother, John W. Shirley, of Fort Jennings. A value of $100 in personal property and $500 in real estate has been placed upon his effects.

LEIPZIG SUNDAY SCHOOLS WANT ATTENDANCE BANNER
LEIPZIG — Sunday schools of Leipzig hope to carry away the banner for the largest attendance, at the Young People's conference, which opens Friday in Continental.

Places at the banquet will be reserved by Floyd Heigl; and Lloyd Pea, who are engaged in soliciting the attendance of young people. At the conference held in the Lutheran church in Leipzig last year, Pan-deum carried off honors. Sunday schools of that town had an attendance of 50 at the banquet.

Young people from Leipzig who will take part in the program are Melvin Johnson, Evelyn Konst and Marcella David.

FORD'S RAILROAD STARTS EFFICIENT MAIL SERVICE
COLUMBUS GROVE — Mail service has been resumed on the Detroit, Toledo & Ironville railroad, Henry Ford's road. For some years no arrangement was made to handle mail to towns touched by this road since Ford had gained possession.

Under a new contract, trains north and south will carry a mail car. With the new arrangement, twelve dispatches now leave Columbus Grove within a given 24 hours.

MACK BELIEVES HIS TEAM WILL FINISH WITH LEADER

ATHLETICS IMPROVED WILL BEAR WATCHING

(BY HENRY L. FAHRELL)

NEW YORK—(United Press.) While other managers were talking last winter about what they wanted to do or what they were going to do, Connie Mack went out and did it. By the general rule of baseball, Athletics with three of the most highly rated minor league players in the country.

He secured two outfielders, Simmons and Strand, and a second baseman, who made a great reputation at Baltimore. With these three stars added to material left from last year, which was far from the worst, Mack boasts that his team is back in the race.

"Well, this second, this year and next year, will displace the New York Yankees as champions," Mack said recently, and he is not addressed to humbug.

Chicago's Galloway, the shortstop, is one of the best players in the game, and with a man at his left, who can work with more finish on double plays and who will not forget him to cover short center, Galloway should be a vastly improved player. Galloway, Mack said, already is the player who can give Galloway a strong infield.

Sammy Rice, at third base, isn't the best third baseman in the league, neither is he the worst. His work suffered last year by the desire to live up to the flattery things that had been said about his minor league play. He should be an improved player because Galloway can pay more attention to the border line of his territory.

Hanser at first base completes what should be a good infield. He is a reliable fielder and a 300 hitter who can also slug.

Simmons and Strand, the veterans, Big Miller and Walker in the outfield, supply a hard hitting, able patrolling combination. The Athletics were charged up last year with the punch that has given them by Spark Plug Matthews, but when Matthews was drubbed out in mid-season, the whole team crept along with him. Simmons and Strand may be able to start the same inspiration and make it more permanent.

PERKINS HARD HITTER. Ralph Perkins is one of the best catchers in the league, and Bruggy is a relief man.

Eddie Rommel, who may have expected a better season than he had last year, finds the pitching staff which consists of Heinemann, Hasty, Naylor, Harris, Wallberg and Ogden. Mack figures that he will have better results from improved pitching all down the line and he may have. He will have to get more games out of his staff if he hopes to be the runner-up club this season.

The Athletics haven't the punch of the Cleveland Indians, and they lack the pitching strength of the Yankees and the Indians. It is not easy to find a reason why they should beat out the Indians or win the pennant. They have a splendid chance, however, to finish in the first division.

CARPENTIER WILL BOX TUNNEY

NEW YORK—The claims of rival promoters for the services of Georges Carpentier who plans a come-back campaign in the United States this summer, virtually were settled Thursday when agreement was reached to have the winner of the proposed match between the Frenchman and Gene Tunney, American light-heavyweight champion, meet Tom Gibbons, St. Paul, light-heavyweight.

This agreement, which is expected to be closed definitely Friday, was reached at a conference between Billy Gibson, manager of Tunney, who holds Carpentier's contract for a bout in New York or New Jersey in June and Floyd Fitzsimmons, Benton Harbor, Mich., promoter who sought to match Carpentier and Gibbons on July 4 at Detroit, Chicago or Michigan City, Ind. It was brought about after Gibbons refused an offer of $50,000 from Fitzsimmons for cancellation of the Tunney-Carpentier contract.

No promoter has been obtained for the Tunney-Carpentier battle, but it is understood that Rickard is ready to promote the bout early in June at Boyl's Thirty Acres, Jersey City.

NEW YORK—Developments in the priority dispute over the services of Georges Carpentier indicate that the date of the Frenchman's fight with Gene Tunney will be moved forward one week and that the winner of the scrap will meet Tom Gibbons in the middle west on July 4.

The agreement is expected to be closed today. The confusion resulted, it appeared, from the confidence of Descamps that Carpentier would beat Tunney with ease. The French manager signed articles with Gibbons on March 11 and on the next day cabled to Jack Curley to make the arrangements for the Gibbons' match.

In the first game of the evening schedule, First Baptist meets First U. B. in the second contest, while Market Presbyterian and Trinity M. E. last place teams, are scheduled to meet in the last fray. However, as these churches have failed to put a team on the floor for the past several weeks, it is thought unlikely that they will appear.

Each of the leagues will close its season within a few weeks.

HOLLOCHER OUT WEAKENS CUBS

LOS ANGELES, Cal.—Shortstop Charles Hollocher is the big IF in the chances of the Chicago Cubs this year.

Hollocher is not with the Cubs. He deserted the team last August because of illness. His salary was not paid during his absence from the lineup.

Hollocher's failure to report this spring is due to his grievance over the failure of the Cubs to pay him his salary while ill.

IF Hollocher fails to report, tied on the salary question, and reports, will he prove to be the Hollocher of old? When Hollocher is in condition, at the top of his game, he is probably the best shortstop in the National League.

STATUS OF HOLLOCHER. Should he report there is a possibility that his prolonged absence from the game and failure to indulge in spring training, will have played havoc with his fielding and batting. If Hollocher fails to report, then Manager Bill Killefer must depend on Shorty Adams, more or less a novice as a big leaguer.

Last season, when Hollocher left the club, Adams stepped into the breach and really did very well. The records, however, show that many a ball game was tossed away because of his unsteadiness in the field, due to lack of experience.

In an effort to fill the hole made by the defection of Hollocher, Manager Bill Killefer has given every recruit infielder a chance to show his worth at shortstop.

JOB FOR BOBBY WALLACE. One of Bill Killefer's assistants is Bobby Wallace, one of the greatest shortstops the game has ever produced. The Cub manager has delegated to Bobby Wallace the job of trying to develop a shortstop from among recruits. Otto Vogel, former university star, who came to the Cubs an outfielder, has proved just so-so in his tryout as a shortstop.

Bob Barrett, with Little Rock last year, a third baseman or second baseman by trade, is getting much attention. Wallace hopes to make him over as he has much ability.

In all probability, however, Shorty Adams will start at that position and continue to hold it unless he blows.

Bill Killefer banks on his pitching to make his club a factor in the National League race this year. He insists his staff is the class of the league. C. Bush, a 21-year-old Mississippi lad, is the best of the great recruit pitchers. He has a great chance to be carried even this is only his second year in professional baseball.

In Squared Circle

BUENOS AIRES — Luis Firpo, Argentine heavyweight champion, today completed training for his fight with Al Reich, American, here tomorrow, which he has declared will be his last.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Tommy Gibbons, St. Paul, light-heavyweight, knocked out Jack McFarland, Detroit, in the second round.

CHICAGO — Warrick Smith, Oklahoma, is in training for his scheduled bout with Morris Schaffner, Omaha, in Chicago, a week from tonight. Smith lost a close ten-round decision to Schaffler last winter and is seeking revenge.

YOUNGSTOWN — Jimmy Jones, local welterweight, has cancelled his bout with Paul Doyle at Canton, April 14, because of a broken thumb, sustained in his go with Morris Schaffler Monday. It was announced today. He will be out of the ring for several weeks.

Working Out The Kinks

CLEVELAND — The New York Yankees regard the Cleveland Indians as the greatest obstacle in their way to a fourth consecutive American League pennant, according to dispatches received here. The Indians are in New Orleans for a seven day stay. Yarnigan regular games are planned except Saturday and Sunday when games with New Orleans are scheduled.

PHILADELPHIA — Snow and ice all over the field greeted the Philadelphia National League team on its arrival from the southern camp.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. — Power Patch, world's champion ice racer, and son of the undefeated Dan Patch, was sold Thursday by H. H. Zittle of Springfield, to W. J. Galvin, owner of the Daily News Journal, Wilmington, Conn.

Galvin's trainer, C. E. Cox, will depart with the world famous horse in a special car today for the Ohio city.

W. J. Galvin is well known in Lima, he being formerly connected in a business way here with his brother L. S. Galvin. He is known as one of the experts in the harness racing game and writes extensively.

Boat Race Day Has Magnetic Influence

LONDON — (Associated Press.) — Tomorrow is Boat Race day, the only event on the calendar of sport with as magnetic influence on the British populace as the Derby at Epsom Downs. Both of these events attract attention by the hundreds of thousands. A few people pay to see them from favored vantage places but the great majority enjoy the spectacle for nothing.

At the boat race all but a privileged few must be satisfied with seeing the crews of Oxford and Cambridge only for a fleeting moment, or two of the 18 to 20 minutes they struggle up the Thames from Putney Bridge to Mortlake, a little over four and one quarter miles yet hundreds of thousands go to their favorite spots hours before the races and stand patiently waiting for a few moments' thrill. They take sandwiches and ginger beer and umbrellas with them. The bargains along the Thames just west of London are never so busy as on Boat Race day.

LOSCHKE IS DEAD

Carl Loschke, who thru success in knocking a bunch of set-ups to sleep, secured among other honors for his training camp "Big" Joe Hornick. Wednesday while going thru their work-out Carl hit Hornick a hard blow in the "tummy." Joe resented it and let one go hard and straight to the jaw. Loschke was taken to the Providence hospital in Kansas City. He died Thursday night from the effects of the blow.

Teams Battle For Second Place

A fight for second place will take place Saturday afternoon in the Sunday School league when the teams meet for their weekly argument. Central Church of Christ, now in second place with a half game lead over South Side Church of Christ, will meet the strong Trinity M. E. team in the first battle of the afternoon, while South Side will meet the league-leading Presbyterian in the final game of the evening. Both contests promise to be good. A South Side win and a Central loss will put the south-siders in second place. The southerners have been traveling at a fast clip after their disastrous start, having won six out of the last seven games played. In the second game of the afternoon First U. B. and First Baptist, the cellar teams, play for last place honors.

CORN IS SLIGHTLY ON ADVANCE

Commission House Buying is in Evidence

RECEIPTS AGAIN SMALL

Wheat and Oats Are on Downward Move

CHICAGO—(Associated Press)—Corn averaged a little higher with wheat and oats a little lower today during the early dealings. Commission house buying of corn was in evidence, demand being based chiefly on persistent smallness of receipts, arrivals in Chicago today only 41 carsloads. Initial prices which ranged from 1-8c lower to 1-4c advance, May 79 to 79 1-4c were followed by further gains for May but something of a setback for July and September. Fine weather tended to ease wheat and oats. After opening at 1-8c off to 1-8 1/4c up, May $1.02 1-8 to 1.02 3-8, and July $1.03 1-2, the wheat market underwent a slight general decline. Oats started at a shade lower to an equal advance, May 46 3-8c and held within a narrow range. Higher quotations on hogs gave a lift to provisions.

TOLEDO—Wheat, 1.06 1/2 @ 1.07 1/2. Corn, 83 1/2 @ 84 1/2. Oats, 51 @ 52. Rye, 67 1/2. Clover, 14. Hay, 21.50 @ 22.00. Timothy, cash, 3.50; May, 3.55.

CINCINNATI—Wheat, 1.11 1/2 @ 1.12 1/2. Corn, 86 @ 87. Oats, 52 to 56. Rye, 69 @ 71. Hay, 21.50 @ 22.00. Timothy, unchanged.

BIDS ARE OPENED

Lima Firms Are After Street Paving Jobs

Bids were opened at noon Friday by the city for the paving of 24 streets, including slightly over 3 miles of paving. Only six companies placed bids for the job, the many were present Friday morning looking the job over.

Bids were received from the following companies: Churchill and Enck Construction Co., of Lima; Andrews Asphalt Co., of Hamilton; Summers and Hardin, of Lima; Frank Froese and Co., of Lima; George B. Walther, of Lima; and J. Blodgett, of Lima.

LIMA IS INCLUDED IN STATE TRAFFIC SURVEY

Amount of maintenance money allotted to Allen-co by the state this year will depend on the amount of traffic passing over the highways, it was learned Friday.

Plans are announced by the highway department Friday for a traffic survey thru Ohio. Lima will be one of 160 points where watchers will be stationed to enumerate the vehicles passing over the roads.

The highway department will spend repair money, Director Boulay announces, on roads where there is the largest traffic.

Local Store System Buys Large Chain

Announcement has just been made that the United States Stores System, owners and operators of stores at 312 N. Main-st and 149 S. Main-st, have purchased the Huey-Mathews chain of stores of Pittsburgh, Pa.

The purchase makes this system one of the largest chains of retail grocery stores in the country, a position which it has reached in remarkably few years. The rapid growth of the company has its cause in the settled policy of the owners to sell the chain store principle to the selling of a better quality of goods than that usually sold in chain stores.

The local stores are two of the many fine stores owned by the system. They have an established and growing patronage and are recognized as two of the most reliable stores of the city, where high quality merchandise is sold at unusually low prices.
